Successful fashion show in Tulsk

The fashion show held recently in the Tulsk Inn was a great success and a very enjoyable evening. The committee and staff of St. Fidelma's Childcare Centre this week thanked all the shops for taking part and to all the models who were fantastic on the night.

Everyone of them did not hesitate when asked to partake and this made the job so much easier. Thanks to the entrepreneurs who displayed their talents during the interval and to everyone who sponsored the raffle and helped to make the night a great success. Thanks to Sean for the use of the Tulsk Inn and for his continued support to the childcare centre.

Thanks to John Lee for his fantastic job as MC and to Pam and Tom from Crofton Entertainment who did such a marvellous job on sound and music which added so much to the proceedings. Thanks to Kevin Ganly, Sean and Michael Crann for their help with the Catwalk. And finally thanks to all the parents, grandparents, staff and committee of the childcare centre who sold the tickets and who give great support to the work of the Childcare Centre on an ongoing basis.

Bluegrass in Ballagh

The second annual Spell's Springtime Bluegrass Fest has been hailed a success in Ballaghaderreen.

Bluegrass bands headlining at the festival, Hickery Wind, Gone to Grass and The Higglers, received standing ovations and encore demands each night. Ballaghaderreen has long been synonymous with traditional Irish music and now holds the record for the most trad sessions per annum for a town of its size. With Easter rolling in, the stage is set to host the 2010 Roscommon Fleadh Cheol, keeping that festival feeling alive.
