Clean-up day in Castlerea

Castlerea Tidy Towns Association is holding a second clean-up day on Tuesday, June 8th at 7 pm on the Square.

There was an excellent turnout the last day and organizers hope to repeat it again next week. The organisation held its annual church gate collection on Sunday May 22nd and collected €970.

"Many thanks, to all who gave so generously in these difficult financial times, without your help we could not continue the good work."

Anyone who is interested in getting involved or who has any good suggestions please contact Cllr. Luke Flanagan at (086) 3685680.

Deirdre and Áine in Rose regional finals

■ Ashling Flanagan

County Roscommon will be represented by two Rose hopefuls at this weekend's regional finals in Portlaoise. Roscommon Rose Deirdre Lenehen will be on stage on Sunday night, while Liverpool Rose Áine Shine, a Ballymurray native, will take to the stage in the Portlaoise Heritage Hotel on Friday night.

Áine Shine won the Liverpool heat of the competition last Friday two weeks. Originally from Ballymurray, Áine is the 25-year-old daughter of Larry and Anne Shine and works as a pharmacist in Liverpool.

Roscommon Rose Deirdre Lenehan won a gold medal for achieving the highest leaving certificate results in her school and now has a degree in Pharmacy and a Masters in Hospital Pharmacy from Trinity College Dublin. The 27-year-old now works at Mater Misericordiae University Hospital as an antimicrobial pharmacist in a senior grade. She hopes to further develop her career as a hospital pharmacist. Deirdre loves languages and hopes to improve her French and Irish in the future, as well as travel more and see new places and meet new people. Judges at the Irish Regional Final, which will be hosted by 2fm DJ Will Leahy, will choose six Roses to join Roses from Dublin, Cork and Kerry in the international festival.

This year, the Irish Regional event will incorporate the British Regional Final (where Áine Shine will be competing) and the North American Regional Final.

The international Rose of Tralee Festival will take place from the 20th to the 24th of August. Dáithí Ó Sé will be the new host of the Rose of Tralee 2010, and will interview 31 Roses over two nights, Monday 23rd and Tuesday 24th of August on RTE 1.
