Stars of our Bars Final this weekend

The eagerly awaited final of the Stars of our Bars competition at The Coachmans Inn will take place this Friday night 9th April. The competition has been running for the past eight weeks and has generated huge interest.

There are three finalists and two will emerge to contest the county final which will be held at a later date. The two winners will receive a substantial cash prize on the night.

The three finalists are: The Two Willys - local comedy duo who have been putting on a hilarious acts every night of the competition. They are John Crean from Ballymurray and Liam Sherringham from Roscommon Town. Just what they will be getting up to this week is anyone's guess!! Stephen Blake comes from Ballygar and his powerful singing and guitar playing has been capturing the imagination of the huge crowds that have attended the competition over the last number of weeks. Caroline Walsh and Orla Daly both hail from Roscommon town and only started their singing partnership for this competition but they have made it through to the final after a string of excellent performances.

The stage is set for the final. There is sure to be great excitement and the competition is set to start at 10pm sharp. The MC is Seamus Duke and the sound and background music is supplied by The Inspectors - Declan Walsh, and Kevin Noone. There will be a disco after the competition is over.

Great turnout at 5th anniversary of Singers' Circle

Ballinasloe Singers' Circle had a great turnout at their 5th anniversary session last month in The Dunlo Tavern, Ballinasloe.

The night marked the end of five years for the increasingly popular group. Singers and storytellers from Knockcroghery, Banagher and Ferbane joined the many local singers and supporters. The next session in The Dunlo Tavern, Dunlo St., Ballinasloe, takes place on Thursday, 8th April from 9.30 pm. All singers and listeners from far and near welcome. The organisers now hope that the regular followers will come out as usual to support the Circle. A further invitation has also been issued to all singers and storytellers in the surrounding area to come along and support the circle. Admission is free. Come early for a seat. For information contact Thomas (090) 96 43448.

Local stars in 'Anything Goes'

Congratulations to Erica Flanagan, Castleplunkett, and Laura Kearney, Castlerea, who recently celebrated great success with Nenagh Choral Society's production of 'Anything Goes'. Erica was leading lady as "Reno Sweeney" and Laura was Musical Director for the second year running. Ironically, both girls previously appeared on stage together in Castlerea Community School's production of 'The Sound of Music' and are both now teaching in North Tipperary.
