Enjoy the paintball experience at Battlebridge Paintball

Battlebridge Paintball offers a superb outlet for friends, college mates or workmates to plan strategic games and encourage leadership or team building skills.

During the past 15 years, the sport of paintball has become recognised as one of the world's most exciting outdoor sports. It is played worldwide by men and women of all ages. Battlebridge Paintball, Battlebridge, Carrick-on-Shannon, which has been open for over a year, provides a gaming experience that no other facility offers, and their army and outdoor adventure knowledge and gaming areas are second to none in terms of military authenticity.

Visitors are provided with camouflage suits and safety goggles and it is recommended that visitors bring a strong comfortable pair of boots and gloves. Male and female changing and hot shower facilities are also offered. The purpose-built gaming area includes a 'Working Village' complete with cemetery, mine and train station.

The package at Battlebridge Paintball includes a BT 4 Paint Gun, safety goggles, camouflage suit and 150 paintballs and the organiser of groups of 20 or more goes free and receives 300 free paintballs.

Participants must be aged 16 or over.

Battlebridge Paintball open from 9.30 am to 1.30 pm each morning, the afternoon session is from 2 pm to 6 pm, while the summer evening session is from 6.30 pm to 9.30 pm. The venue is located close to the N4, the main Dublin to Sligo Road, just ten minutes from Boyle and Carrick-on-Shannon and three minutes from Leitrim Village.
