David tells his cancer care story

Cancer Care West, hosted the premiere screening of 'An Oasis of Care' at the Eye Cinema Galway on Wednesday evening week last. The movie is a short documentary telling the story of four different people – one of whom is from Roscommon – and their personal experience of cancer and the supports they received from Cancer Care West.

The four people included in the documentary are Ann-Marie and Jacqui from Galway, David from Roscommon and Caroline from Westmeath. Each individual tells their own story in their own way to communicate the fears, anxieties and support they felt on their journey through cancer.

Attending the premiere screening, Richard Flaherty, CEO of Cancer Care West commented on the documentary, "This film sums up the work of Cancer Care West very succinctly. Each individual benefited in a different way from the services we provide through Inis

Pictured at the reception in the G Hotel after the screening of 'An Oasis Of Care', a documentary on the care provided by Cancer Care West in Inis Aoihbhinn, were Ann Marie Cleere, Jacqui Keaveney, Caroline Harney and David Bell. Anne Marie, Jacqui, Caroline and David's stories were all featured in the documentary. Pic: Reg Gordon

Aoibhinn and The Support Centre and at the same time they experienced the same sense of safety and support. We hope the film illustrates the real contribution Cancer Care West has made to cancer sufferers and their families in the West of Ireland, and I would like to express our appreciation to everyone who has supported us to make this happen." Commenting on the film, Dr. Helen Greally, Director of Psychology and Support Services at Cancer Care West said, "We established the support centre in recognition of the fact that emotional support in cancer care is of vital importance and I think the benefits of that are quite clearly illustrated in this movie. It is wonderful to see how Cancer Care West has positively impacted the lives of cancer patients and their families." If you would like a copy of the DVD, the, please contact Cancer Care West on at (091) 545000.
