Three local clubs in Special Olympics National Games

Three clubs from County Roscommon will be represented at the Special Olympics National Games, which take place in Limerick from 9th June.

The athletes all competed at local and regional level over the last two years. Each athlete was a gold medal winner in a specific category and sport. In addition to their regular training at local club level, the athletes are also attending regional training sessions with the Connacht Team. Athletes are assessed to grade the level of their performance in their chosen sport and then they compete at that level.

Two clubs from Castlereagh have members who will compete in Limerick. Members of Castlereagh Special Olympics Table Tennis Club are being represented at National level for the first time and three athletes are training hard. Also in Castlereagh, students at St. Michael's School are preparing for the competitions. Two students will perform gymnastics; three will compete in table tennis and one will participate in motor activities.

The third club from the County is Roscommon

Special Olympics Swimming Club. Two swimmers are looking forward to travelling to Limerick. One athlete from Roscommon is joining the Connacht Soccer Team as well.

Coaches and athletes have made huge efforts to reach this stage and are certain to represent their county with pride.

They have a large group of supporters and volunteers to encourage them and they are sure to do well.
