Celebrity cook-off kicks off!

The Roscommon Lamb Festival's Restaurant Celebrity Cook-Off line-up was announced at the official Roscommon Lamb Festival 2010 programme launch in Gleeson's Townhouse & Restaurant, Roscommon Town recently.

With over 100 guests the event itself was a fantastic occasion as the festival programme was revealed. A new addition to this year's festival – the RLF Restaurant Celebrity Cook-Off – pits the culinary skills of 12 community personalities from around the county against each other. Their battles will take place in six restaurants and hotels in the county. Giving a helping hand to all the chefs will be the head chef of each restaurant, guiding the celebrity chefs to create an exciting lamb dish that diners will vote for as the winner on the night.

That winning celebrity and their restaurant will go through to the next heat with the grand final taking place on Friday 30th April during the Roscommon Lamb Festival on the May Bank Holiday Weekend.

All the events in each restaurant will have a fantastic atmosphere with commentary on how the chefs are doing on the night as they cook. Winners will be announced in next week's edition with dates for the quarter-finals and semi finals. So keep your eyes peeled!

This is one of the main food events that is taking place over the festival weekend which promises to be the biggest festival yet, with over 30 events taking place in food, farming, heritage and family fun.

Your support is very important – so get to your local restaurant and support your local celebrity!

Tickets cost €30, which includes a three-course meal, a glass of wine and entertainment and are available from each restaurant and the celebrities themselves!
