

Roscommon Home Services – a success story for local families

If you need respite for family members or perhaps someone to do some meal preparation, light housekeeping, or laundry for an elderly person, or maybe even a spot of cleaning or garden maintenance, then call the professionals at Roscommon Home Services.

Roscommon Home Services makes life easier for you and your loved ones and operates in counties Roscommon, Galway and Mayo. Established in 1996, Roscommon Home Services specialises in providing practical and personal care to the elderly in the comfort of their own home.

They recently set up Galway Home Services, which aims to provide a necessary, affordable and worthwhile service to the community of County Galway and surrounding areas.

All workers with Roscommon Home Services come fully insured, with background checks carried out and are chosen for their suitability. All services are delivered on a non-profit making basis. The head office is located in Brook Lodge, Celtic Avenue, Roscommon. In recent years Roscommon Home Services has won many awards, including Pride of Place awards and an award for social entrepreneurship.

Manager of Roscommon Home Services, Veronica Barrett said, "Companionship would be a vital part of the service we offer and staff are very flexible in terms of both the services offered and the hours. Staff are trained to deal with personal and practical care and all the workers are fully insured. We also provide childcare, garden maintenance and commercial and house cleaning."

"We take care of all the PRSI returns on behalf of the workers and they are fully integrated into the employment system. The service is very straightforward and there are no hidden charges, the price you are quoted is the price you will be charged." The management board is made up of eleven people who are committed to the service on a voluntary basis. The service is available on a full time, part time and respite basis. The benefits are twofold: it provides a much-needed service and part time employment to those who wish to avail of it.

recruits, trains and places carers with clients. Currently it has over three hundred and thirty employees delivering services in counties Roscommon, Galway and Mayo, with 130 people working in Roscommon. Services to clients include personal care, practical care, companionship, respite for family members, meal preparation, light housekeeping and laundry. A cleaning service is also available, to both corporate and domestic clients. Garden maintenance is also available, as is window cleaning.

Families who avail of Roscommon Home Services can look forward to reliability, punctuality, confidentiality and flexibility. The service is delivered on a professional basis and is flexible to suit client's needs. All employees are paid by the co-operative, therefore avoiding conflict between client and carer. Clients are invoiced on a monthly basis and income tax relief is available.

One happy client said the following of Roscommon Home Services, "I would like to thank you all for your constant support and help during my mother's illness. You brought joy to her life by introducing your two carers into her weekly routine. She loved them so much and they will always remain close family friends. Thank God for your agency and support. We would not have been able to cope having Mam at home for so long only for your agency and such kind people."

Roscommon Home Services is a huge successful company which continues to forge ahead despite economic recession.
