Major holistic and psychic fair in Ballinasloe

A range of Ireland's top psychics, mediums, tarot and angel card readers will be in Ballinasloe on Sunday 27th June, for a major holistic and psychic fair in the Carlton Shearwater Hotel from 12 noon to 8 pm.

Holistic and psychic fairs are a great place to meet and mingle with like-minded people and some of the best therapists in Ireland. You will always find a host of the best instructors with an array of workshop details to help you on your holistic journey. If it is good and holistic, there is a good chance you will find it at the holistic and psychic fair on Sunday 27th.

Among the features of the forthcoming fair are life coaching, reiki, kinesiology, crystal healing, holistic massage, Indian head massage and aromatherapy.

If you have a question you need answered or you need clarification on something relating to love, life, career, health or business, go along on the 27th to the Carlton Shearwater Hotel Ballinasloe and have your destiny revealed. You will also find the best local therapists, instructors and retailers at this event. Meet weight loss and quit smoking expert Joe McCormack. Alternatively, you can explore aura photography, FairTrade products, handmade jewellery, as well as a range of books, cards, CDs and DVDs.
