Win a copy of The BARDS' new CD!

Diarmuid & gang for Roscommon

This week the Roscommon People is offering each of three lucky readers an opportunity to win the super new CD by the legendary Diarmuid O'Leary & THE BARDS. Diarmuid and THE BARDS will continue their 2010 tour, in The Abbey Hotel, Roscommon on Saturday July 3rd.

While they are probably best known for their comedy hits such as 'Julia at Lanigans Ball', 'The Oldest Swinger in Town', 'How's She Cuttin'' etc., an equally strong facet of the group is their ability to render a wide range of more serious and contemporary material like 'Shaney Boy' and 'The Railway Hotel', together with exciting arrangements of traditional Irish music.

As well as the earlier hits, their two-hour live show will include many of the eccentric, tongue-in-cheek songs from their 'Comedy Hits Album' like 'Late Starters in Love', 'If I was a Dog', 'Mother Tongue', etc. and material from their brand new album 'The Railway Hotel'.

Tour details and all The Bards recordings available from www.thebards.ie.

To enter this competition, just answer the following question and send your entry to 'The BARDS competition', Roscommon People, Abbey Street, Roscommon by Friday, 25th of June.

Q: Who is the lead singer with The BARDS?

Entries to: 'The BARDS competition',
Roscommon People, Abbey Street,
Roscommon by Friday, 25th of June.
