There was a huge turnout at the launch of Celebrity Jigs and Reels Roscommon 2010 which took place in Gleeson's Townhouse, Roscommon on Tuesday night.

Another glittering line-up of local celebrities will participate this year – seven males and seven females.

Organiser Ms. Collette Glynn says she is really excited by the challenge of presenting an even more exciting show than last year's hugely successful and entertaining event.

At Tuesday night's launch there was lots of music and craic with John Crean acting as master of ceremonies. It augurs well for a superb occasion when the Celebrity Jigs and Reels 2010 event takes place in the Abbey Hotel, Roscommon on Saturday, May 22nd next. The event will be hosted in aid of the RosFm Disability and Training Fund, with a significant cash prize being donated by the winner to a charity of their choice.

Don't miss next week's Roscommon People where we will be revealing who this year's celebrities are!

Woman was confronted by thief with knife

An elderly woman who was confronted by a thief armed with a knife was badly shaken arising from the traumatic incident.

The incident happened at about 6.45 pm on Monday evening when a young man entered McNeill's shop in Abbey Street, Roscommon.

The man, understood to have been in his late teens or early 20's, produced a knife and threatened the elderly lady who was working in the shop at the time. The man left the premises with a sum of money from the till and made his escape in a car that was waiting for him outside.

There was no-one else in the shop at the time of the theft. The lady who was working in the shop was badly shaken following the incident.

Gardai are appealing for anyone who saw anything suspicious in the Abbey Street/Circular Road/Abbeytown area on Monday evening between 6 pm and 7 pm to come forward with details. You can contact Roscommon Gardai at 090-6638300.
