Family Fun Sunday in the park

A full menu of activities are taking place in Loughnaneane Park in the full glory of Roscommon Castle as part of Roscommon Lamb Festival 2010.

Linking up with the Wool Craft Village in the Square and the International Sheepdog trials in Walshe's Field, there will be something for everyone as family fun, heritage and food are showcased all in one place! Facepainting, balloon modelling, music, pony rides, dancing and entertainment will all be on offer. Admission is free, so bring all the family. Highlights include: Sheep racing with raffle sweepstake, Pet Lamb, Bo Peep & Boy Blue Competition sponsored by Texas department store and Island View Canine Creche, the Army No. 1 Band, Traditional Skills Showcase, Global Kitchen International Food Village, Global Dance Showcase and much more.

Visit www.roscommonlambfestival.com to see all the other exciting events that are taking place over the weekend. You can also follow the festival on facebook.com/roscommonlambfestival where you can interact with other fans and share photos and stories from the weekend.
