

Ballygar 66th Annual Carnival 2010

Thursday 29th July to Tuesday 3rd August

Musical Bonanza at Ballygar

Ballygar Carnival offers one of the most impressive line-ups for music lovers with many of Ireland's top performers taking to the stage during the festivities.

The opening days acts including 'Beat on the Street' who will kick-off proceedings after the Grand Carnival opening and Jessie' Revenge, who will be performing at 9 pm.

Nightshow Roadshow, with professional DJs coming from across the country, will be spinning the discs from 11.30 pm until late to bring the musical festivities to an end in the perfect way on the opening night.

The 'Classic Beatles' will be headlining the festival on the Saturday night at the centre in what promises to be a very memorable night.

On the Friday, Ireland's most popular cover-band, Big Generator, will be performing some of the greatest rock'n'roll hits of the last decade and beyond.

On the Sunday night Ireland's favourite traditional sons the Wolfe Tones are in town while on Monday, the Dublin City Ramblers play a free street concert at 9pm before The Conquerors take over at the centre with music until late.

There will also be a host of other acts playing at free concerts throughout the festival including Doc Savage and Shandy Fol and David and Blue Tax who take to the stage during the festivities.

All tickets for the concerts are very reasonably priced and there is something for everyone be it rock, trad, folk or disco as Ballygar Carnival provides six days of the very best entertainment for music lovers in the region.
