

Delightful wedding packages at the Abbey Hotel

A range of delightful wedding packages are now available at Roscommon's most elegant wedding venue, the Abbey Hotel.

Over many decades, members of the Grealy family have learned how to ensure that your special day is just that, providing a spectacular venue, wonderful food and an energy and enthusiasm directed at ensuring that your special day is everything you dreamed of.

The deluxe package, which has a wide range of benefits for the bridal party and their guests, including red carpet, punch reception, five-course meal including wine, flower arrangements, supper and champagne breakfast for the bride and groom, costs just €49 per person; the exclusive package, which also features complimentary bedrooms for the parents of the bridal party and tailored chair covers as well as other extras, costs €52.50, while the premium package, which also features sparkling wine for the toasts, a wedding cake, resident DJ, flowers for the bride, bridesmaids, groom, groomsmen, parents and church flowers, as well as complimentary bedrooms for the bride and groom's parents, costs €59 per person.

With all three packages, the bride and groom and their guests can look forward to red carpet treatment throughout the day, beginning with the arrival on the red carpet and a wine reception for the bridal party on arrival. This will be followed by a summer or winter punch reception and tea, coffee and biscuits on arrival for wedding guests. The wedding party will then enjoy a superb five-course meal, with three menu options to choose from. Petit fours or after dinner mints complete the repast and house red or white wine is served with the meal. Floral arrangements are also placed on each table.

Later, amid the dancing, the Abbey Supper consists of tea, coffee, sandwiches and cocktail sausages and when your most memorable day is over, you will wake up to enjoy a champagne breakfast for the bride and groom served to your room!

Wedding packages at the Abbey Hotel also include a cake stand, personalised printed menus, private bar facility for your guests, ample parking and a discounted rate for accommodation for wedding guests.

There are many reasons why you should choose to have your wedding in the Abbey Hotel. Firstly, it is an established family-run premises, with a great track record and a secure future. There is only one wedding per day and you can enjoy a complimentary bridal suite on the night of your wedding. Beautifully appointed function rooms can cater for 50 to 300 persons and you can also enjoy the services of a personalised wedding co-ordinator to help you at every stage of your preparation.

Wedding menus are extensive and you can also relax and unwind in the fabulous Abbey Health and Fitness. The extensive mature landscaped gardens are ideal for wedding photos that will be treasured for a lifetime.

The Abbey Hotel Roscommon is the first venue in Roscommon to launch an exciting new online wedding technology called Moposa, which enables couples to create a unique wedding experience for themselves and their guests. Couples can use an online seating planner to drag 'n' drop their guests onto seating plans that are specific to the venue. In addition they can access tools such as guest list manager, task list manager, music planner and budget planner. Couples receive their own personal '.com' wedding website to enable them to share more of their wedding with friends and family. Guests can RSVP online, book a hotel room, check out weather forecasts and even get automated, personalised driving directions to the ceremony and reception.

Everyone who gets married wants to have amazing photos to remember the day for the rest of their lives. Moposa enables guests to share all the photos and videos after the wedding so that the couples can access every image taken. Another fantastic tool is Guestxt, where couples get to send free text messages to any or all of the guests.

See for yourself what's on offer

The Abbey Hotel is currently offering a wonderful show around package for prospective brides and grooms. After check in, couples will be treated to a glass of champagne and canapés or tea, coffee and scones. The package includes early check-in to one of the deluxe bedrooms, complimentary use of the award-winning leisure centre, full table d'hôte dinner in the restaurant and breakfast served to your room the following morning.

Once you have had a nice relaxing evening, you can meet with one of the Hotel Managers the following morning for a private consultation at your leisure. The Manager will be delighted to show you around the hotel and answer any questions you have. Management and staff at the Abbey Hotel know that your wedding day is one of the most important days of your life, and their aim and commitment is to make this day one of the most special and memorable.

The Grealy family and staff have many years of experience organising and planning such events, and would be delighted to work with you in finalising the details for your day, ensuring you can relax feeling confident that everything will run smoothly and according to plan.

The total cost of this show around package is only €200 per couple, which can be used as part of your booking deposit if you book your wedding at the Abbey Hotel. Contact (090) 66 26240 for details of our great special offers.
