Rally returns to Rooskey

Launch night for the Midland Motor Club annual Rally 2010 took place in the Shannon Key West Hotel Rooskey on Monday Night 15th February.

This is the second year in a row the Rally comes to Rooskey, with the Shannon Key West the Main sponsor and headquarters for the event. The launch was attended by the Lord Mayor of Longford, Cllr Peggy Nolan, along with other invited guests, club members, Rally officials and other members of the public.

Cllr. Nolan remarked on the long history of the Club, now in its 42nd year and the successful Moto Stages event ran in 2009. It is with great pleasure the Club invites the Lord Mayor back to the start ramp on Sunday 28th March to flag the first car off.

After the initial photo shoot with sponsors and competitors, guests enjoyed light refreshments in the hotel where a presentation on the event was given by Clerk of the Course, Sean Cahill. Sean said he was delighted to accept the role of COC again this year after the success of the '09 event. He thanked the Lord Mayor of Longford Cllr Peggy Nolan for attending and he said he was pleased by the huge support and numbers of Club members who attended. Sean also thanked the Moto Stages Rally committee, the residents along the Rally route and reiterated again this year that road safety is paramount at all times and especially around Motor-sport events.

He thanked the sponsors of the event, Main sponsor Niall Flynn Shannon Key West Hotel Rooskey, Mulleady's Waste Management Drumlish, Tighe's Centra Rooskey, Finnegan's Garage Ballymahon and Service Matters Roscommon. This year's Rally is the second round of the Loughran Signs 2010 Midlands East Rally Championship and the third round of Midland Motorclub Clubman Championship.
